Tonopah the Metropolis

Tonopah is a name to conjure with at the present time. It is a synonym for prosperity and within the next few months this city will start on a movement that will soon make it the greatest, largest prosperous and most wide-awake community in the state of Nevada. Instead of the hub of the state being in the northern section, it will be here in the south end.

The increased activity to be observed in this district cannot help but bring the results. The resumption of activity in the Cash Boy property, located on the flat below the city, means a great deal to this camp, as did the Tonopah Merger when that company first started. The proved zone has been extended in all directions, and the extension will continue as fast as new properties start systematic operations.

"Phoenix like, risen from the ashes," is a time honored axiom that is now relegated to the background. The new saying should be, "Bonanza like, risen from the ground." You see, we went several inches deeper and then smashed all records. Of course this is with due respect to Phoenix, whoever he, she, or it happens to be.

Some day Brougher avenue will be cleared of the rubbish that now graces that thoroughfare and our front yard will again be attractive.

The five departments of the new Bonanza are working full blast, night and day. Call around and inspect our workings and see for yourself a plant that has been constructed and placed in running order in just seven days by the calendar.

FILES PAPERS FOR SHORT TERM COMMISSIONER

TOM MARSHALL IS OUT FOR SHORT TERM COUNTY
COMMISSIONER

Thomas S. Marshall yesterday filed his nomination papers with the county clerk for the office of short term commissioner. This is the first applicant for a commissioner's position to file his papers with the county clerk, but from rumors to be heard about the streets, it is understood that a mass of papers will shortly be placed on file, for the commissioners, and, in fact, every office in the county.

County Clerk Robert G. Pohl stated yesterday that all nomination papers must be placed on file by August 2, as after that date he will be unable to accept such papers.

WEDDED THIS MORNING AT PRESBYTERIAN MANSE

Elmer A. Pulmer and Miss Martha Puttkamer were united in marriage this morning at the Presbyterian manse by the Rev. J. M. Swander. Following the ceremony the couple departed for San Francisco, after having been tendered a royal send-off by friends. Mr. Pulmer is a miner and is employed by one of the local companies.
